Rabbit ID Day

June 9 from 2:00 - 4:00 pm
Rabbit Barn/Multi-Purpose Barn

Every rabbit 4-H member must attend this session. There will only be one session for non-meat pen rabbits and any rabbit not checked in on ID Day will not be allowed to be shown at the county fair. Meat Pen ID dated to be scheduled later in June.

Each 4-H member is limited to 15 rabbits total and 2 rabbits per class. A meat pen entry is also counted as 1 entry and each member is limited to two meat pen of rabbits. Please plan on bringing all of the rabbits that you would want to show and any rabbits that could be used as substitutions in case one of your rabbits becomes ill or for any reason cannot be shown. Remember that substitutions have to be the same sex, variety, breed, and class as the rabbit that they are replacing.

If your rabbit needs a tattoo, it can be done at the check-in, free of charge. You may not share rabbits or meat pen bunnies with other 4-H members, even if they are members of your family. Each 4-H member must own their own rabbits. If someone else is bringing your rabbits to ID Day, please call Robin Vogel at 303-514-2053 in advance to arrange for this change.

You will be given a copy of your entry form(s) with classes and will need to enter them in Showorks by June 12th to show at Fair. We will have computers and people to assist you that day to enter your information into Showorks. It is highly recommended that you enter your birds into Showorks June 9th at ID Day.

Reminders about County and State Shoot.
